Feature OF THE MONTH

HOLIDAY INN MONTREAL MIDTOWN

Total Vacations recently had the pleasure of holding our Montreal Product Launch at the Holiday Inn Montreal Midtown. This property offers you a choice of spacious guest rooms along with executive suites, fine dining with lounge, fitness facilities with indoor pool and jacuzzi, business center, beauty salon, gift shop and 20,000 square feet of conference/banquet facilities to cater to any need. Not to mention it is an excellent downtown location close to several underground shopping centers, restaurants, museums, nightlife and several festival grounds.

During our stay, from the moment we arrived to the moment of our departure, the overall impression of the hotel was exceptional. It was obvious that their main focus was service excellence! Those agents in attendance would surely agree that the atmosphere and ambiance were worth experiencing.

Total Vacations would like to thank all the staff involved in our product launch preparation and presentation. We highly recommend this property for any clients needs whether it is for business or pleasure.

NEW WEBSITE FOR YOU, OUR PARTNERS

Total Vacations is pleased to announce the launch of our new look and feel on the web. Within the site there will be an exclusive section for you our retail partners. The first phase of this section will allow you to research our destination/hotel product line-up, order brochures, inquire about your bookings and even order gift certificates.

The second phase coming early in the new year will allow you to make all of your bookings on line through a "shopping cart" style of experience by adding or deleting components as you go. Remember that thanks to our flexible departures and unique products, you may book each of the product components individually or package them "Any Way You Like It". This is all user friendly and password protected.
