

Venezuela

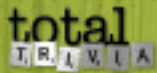

Where dreams are reborn

The Venezuelan culture is a contemporary mix of African, Hispanic, and native roots, that came together in the colonial centuries. This makes for an interesting and exciting destination that offers a unique gastronomic, artistic and architectural experience.

The country offers beaches from east to west with over 3,000 kilometers of white, red or silver sands; many which have yet to be discovered by the mainstream tourist. Be sure to check out the popular Margarita Island or the tranquil "Los Roques National Park" where you can find some of the clearest waters you'll ever see. The lively port town and beach resort of Puerto La Cruz where the fun never stops is also worth a visit.

Although Venezuela can boast some of the most beautiful beaches in this hemisphere, there is so much more to Venezuela than just stunning beaches. Discover many different regions offering luscious land and magnificent landscapes ripe for pristine ecotourism.

The variety of landscapes, wealth of flora and fauna and the warm and friendly people in Venezuela offer something for everyone.

ADVENTURE AMAZONAS

4 DAYS (3 NIGHTS)

from $369 per person, based on double occupancy

DAY 1-TRANSFER TO THE ORINOQUIA LODGE. Lunch. Small hike to an open point in the woods with a panoramic view over the Orinoco River.

DAY 2-VISIT SOME VILLAGES OF THE PIAROA TRIBE. Learn about their way of life, their agriculture and local plants, many of which are used for healing purposes. Demonstration of the making of baskets, hammocks as well as traps which are used for hunting. While walking through the jungle observe the leaf cutter ants at work full speed. The afternoon offers recreation-a natural Tobogan amidst all the wonders which surround us here will end in some delicious pools.

DAY 3-BOAT TRIP ON THE ORINOCO RIVER. We take a trip up stream, observe many small waters meeting the mighty river and "inhale" lush and abundant vegetation all around us. With luck some fresh water Dolphins might greet us, otters and birds of course! You'll have enough time to take a swim or sunbathe on one of the water banks which form during the dry season.

DAY 4-CITY TOUR TO PUERTO AYACUCHO. After breakfast we visit the capital of the Amazon State, renowned for its Museum for Indigenous culture. On our visit to it, we can learn about the history and customs of the various tribes living here. Afterwards we'll take a look at the colorful marketplace in town where you will find many attractive handicrafts, made here by local people. This visit ends our trip here where we leave you at the airport for your flight to Caracas.
